26. To allow a reasonable and fair opportunity to all electors, the Presiding Member may limit the number of motions that may be submitted per elector.
27. "Motions from the Floor" will only be accepted at the discretion of the Presiding Member.

 - h. Once a motion is moved and seconded, the Presiding Member will call for any speakers against the motion.
 - i. There being no speakers against the motion, the Presiding Member will put the motion to the vote.
37. If there are speakers against the motion, the following debating protocol will apply
 - j. The mover of a motion will be invited to speak first, and the seconder will be provided the opportunity to speak next. The Presiding Member will then call for other verified electors who wish to speak.
 - k. The mover of a motion (but not the mover of an amendment) has the right of reply, and this closes the debate. All other speakers may speak once on a motion or an amendment.
 - l. The right of reply is limited to a maximum of two minutes.
38. A verified elector may rise and move without discussion, "That the motion be now put", which, on being duly seconded and carried by a simple majority, will result in submission of the motion at once to the meeting.
39. The Presiding Member will manage the time allocated for speakers to ensure that all verified electors are given a fair and equal opportunity to speak.
40. If the Presiding Member determines that sufficient and fair debate has occurred on a motion or amendment then the Presiding Member, after inviting the mover to exercise the right of reply (but not the mover of an amendment), will put that motion to the vote.

Part 7 - Voting at an Electors' Meeting (ref Regulation 17)

41. The Presiding Member will ask for a vote on the motion.

4. GENERAL BUSINESS

4.1 Written Questions

Alison Stephens, Coogee

Q1. I have asked for an organisational chart and have tried to find out who is in charge of HR but without success. And now I see you can't submit a question that reflects badly on staff. So where does one go when staff are repeatedly in breach of their Code Of Conduct?

A1. The Director Community and Place thanked Ms Stephens for her question and advised that the City's Management Structure is provided on the website and in the Annual Report, however a detailed organisational chart at employee level is not available, noting the City has over 1,000 employees. The Customer Service Team can assist with names and contact details for specific roles.

If you have a complaint regarding employees, in accordance with our Council Policy on compliments, feedback and complaints, you are able to put that through, initially it needs to be directed to the Chief Executive Officer.

Addressing Petitions to Council
